ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1.                    The Defendant shall pay $371,884.72 restitution.

Mr. Moss was ordered to pay $371,884.72 restitution. According to the clerk's office, Mr. Moss paid $2,810 toward restitution, leaving a balance of $369,074.72.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Gregory Moss commenced the two-year term of supervised release effective February 1, 2011. He completed the first five months of supervision on home detention on July 3, 2011. Mr. Moss has maintained employment with Howard Baer Inc., as a truck driver. He has paid $2,810 toward restitution, leaving a remaining balance of $369,074.72. Mr. Moss appeared in Court on February 22, 2013, pursuant to a petition alleging failure to pay 10 percent of his gross monthly income toward restitution. The term of supervision was extended for one year, creating a new expiration date of January 31, 2014. Mr. Moss was also ordered to submit monthly payments of not less than $50 per month toward restitution. Mr. Moss has submitted monthly payments of $50 per month toward restitution with the exception of May 2013. He has been instructed to submit payment for May 2013, as soon as possible. Supervision is currently set to expire on January 31, 2014.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended Mr. Moss be allowed to terminate from supervision still owing restitution. Should he not continue to make payments after he expires from supervision, the U.S. Attorney's Office has the option to seek garnishment of his income or place a lien on any property he may acquire. This matter has been submitted to Assistant U.S. Attorney, Sandra Moses, who concurs with this recommendation.
